

Kennedy King Memorial Initiative, Inc.

Honoring and Celebrating Non-Violence and Peaceful Collaboration

The Kennedy King Memorial Initiative, Inc. shall promote, commemorate, educate, and build according to the initiatives, challenges, and visions inspired by the historical events of April 4, 1968 in Indianapolis, Indiana.

“THE DREAM 50 YEARS LATER – WHAT DOES IT MEAN?”

The 50th Anniversary Celebration of Dr. Martin Luther King’s “I Have A Dream” Speech

Monday, August 26, 2013

Indiana Historical Society

7:00 p.m.

Panel Discussion

Moderator: Erika Smith, metro columnist, The Indianapolis Star

Rufus Burrow, Jr., Indiana Professor of Christian Thought and Professor of Theological Social Ethics at Christian Theological Seminary,; author of God and Human Dignity: The Personalism, Theology, and Ethics of Martin Luther King, Jr. (University of Notre Dame Press, 2006) and Martin Luther King Jr. for Armchair Theologians (Westminster John Knox, 2009)

Monroe H. Little, Associate Professor of History and Africana Studies at Indiana University Purdue University Indianapolis, , published in Afro-Amercian Studies and American Education; and teaches “African-American History”

Kevin Brown, Richard S. Melvin Professor at Indiana University Maurer School of Law-Bloomington; author of over 50 writings on race, education and law including Race, Law and Education in the Post-Desegregation Era(Carolina Academic Press 2005) and Because of Our Success: The Changing Racial and Ethnic Ancestry of Blacks on Affirmative Action (Carolina Academic Press, forthcoming 2014)